- I just wanted to drop a quick note to say thanks for beefing up police presence around the Duncan Pl NE area. Officer MacKenzie just dropped by for the third time to check in, and the effort makes me feel much more safe to know that we have a beat officer who is looking out for us -- and one that we can get to know personally.

- Thanks, Thomas

- Thank you sir, I greatly appreciate the response since Monday's meeting, your e-mail, the chiefs response and the visit from the officers and detective Smith last night. What's clear is that the DCPD strives to serve every individual with an equal and high level of service. Specifically, last night after the visit from the officers and the detective, I noticed them fan out into the community to patrol. Additionally, this morning when I left my house at 5:45 am to walk to work I noticed an officer (officer Allen) in a squad car monitoring the corner of 7th and E. I also noticed officer's monitoring Maryland Ave this morning. Again, the response is noticed and appreciated by the community.
- It is my intention to contact the Washington Post to do a follow-up story. My motivation is two-fold: 1- you deserve the recognition for your current and continued response and 2- the more press regarding increased police intervention will help deter the crime. You can reach me at 202-xxx-xxxx if you have any questions etc.
- My best,
- James
